

FLORIDO

capturing intimate moments since 2012

Because honest always ages better

Florido is about capturing weddings the way that they felt. In digital and film. With light, honesty and just enough direction to make you feel like yourself but on your best day

WE ARE
CALLIE + ANDRE

We are two friends who share the same philosophy of delivering wedding photography that is different.

We work well under pressure and will guide you smoothly on the day. We have shot hundreds of weddings and really have seen it all. We know how to balance the art of observation and guidance, knowing when to step back or when to step forward.

Florido was established in 2012, but we have over 16 years shooting experience in weddings, photojournalism, editorial and fashion photography within Australia and abroad.

We keep our style fresh by shooting a maximum amount of weddings per year and continually working on our personal work which brings in elements of fashion and editorial to our wedding photography.
