

FLORIDO

capturing intimate moments since '12

We are subtle observers and expert story tellers.

Our approach to capturing your wedding is part polite stalker and part journalistic guide. We've mastered the perfect balance of action and observation, allowing us to intuitively alternate between blending into the background and confidently stepping forward to guide you.

WE ARE CALLIE + ANDRE

We are two friends who share the same philosophy of delivering wedding photography that is different.

We work well under pressure and will guide you smoothly on the day. We have shot hundreds of weddings and really have seen it all. We know how to balance the art of observation and guidance, knowing when to step back or when to step forward.

Florido was established in 2012, but we have over 16 years shooting experience in weddings, photojournalism, editorial and fashion photography within Australia and abroad.

We keep our style fresh by shooting a maximum amount of weddings per year and continually working on our personal work which brings in elements of fashion and editorial to our wedding photography.

WELCOME

The fact that you have reached out about our services already means so much to us. We are a small business run by passionate people and every enquiry keeps us moving.
